

PORTOFINO DUBBING GLAMOUR FESTIVAL 1st e ACTORSPOETRYFESTIVAL 8th

Press Release

Is online announcement to participate in Portofino Dubbing Glamour Festival, Spin-off di ActorsPoetryFestival. the historic Festival, now in its 8th edition, an opportunity for actors and performance's authors to obtain contracts of work. The announcement and rule page, from where you can download the form is at: <https://teatrogag.com/bando-iscrizioni-e-regolamento-di-portofino-dubbing-glamour-festival-e-actorspoetryfestival/>.

Five sections of the area are dedicated to the actors: live performance, dubbing, reading of audio books, speaking and video acting. Portofino Dubbing Glamour Festival hold the Semifinals and Finals of the Dubbing Section.. The prizes to be won are contracts with Warner Bros, SDI Media, GOODmood, Editrice Zona, Teatro G.A.G., Ass. Il Gatto certosino and the prize for the Video acting Section.

The Jury, composed by the Gotha of the national dubbing and internationally renowned actors will see Giancarlo Giannini as president, with the collaboration of Annalaura Carano (Warner Bros Entertainment), Christian Iansante (official voice of Bradley Cooper), Marco Mete (historic voice of Daffy Duck, director of dubbing, actor), Haruhiko Yamanouchi (voice actor and actor speaker Spot Suzuki), Ida Sansone (voice actor of Dolores Umbridge for Harry Potter, director of dubbing and actress, Marco Checchi (Booker di SDI Media), Gerardo Di Cola (critic and award-winning dubbing historian). Artistic director Daniela Capurro, present in the two juries.

At the table of jurors of ActorsPoetryFestival 8° edition there will be: Roberto Trovato (professor of dramaturgy University of Genoa), Paola Ergi (owner GOODmood audiolibri), Rosa Elisa Giangoia (president of the association Il Gatto certosino), Laura Garavaglia (poet, journalist, founder of the festival international Europe in prose), Paolo Linetti (curator of the Museum of Oriental Art in Brescia), Piero Cademartori (Publisher Zona). Prizes by Warner. The places chosen for the two Festivals are confirmed as Palazzo Ducale, Museo Biblioteca dell'Attore of Genoa, Villa Piaggio, the open space of Santa Margherita and Portofino.

The Program of the two events produced by Teatro GAG, also includes two exhibitions on dubbing and its interpreters also on the Manga-Anime, prestigious workshops, comic gags by Alessandro Bianchi, musical performances by Megumi Akanuma and Benedetto Spingardi Merialdi, speed date, an open debate, book presentations and meetings with the public. The Registration form and the Rules for participation can be downloaded from www.teatrogag.com. Participation is allowed to Italian and foreign competitors. Reservations are open for speed date (free of charge) e for workshop with Haruhiko Yamanouchi, Marco Mete, Ida Sansone, Rosa Elisa Giangoia, Paola Ergi e Paolo Linetti. For all the shows free entry. Info mail: info@teatrogag.com.